

14. A human geographer is writing an article on the political trends evident in modern-day Africa. He uses the following quotation from a recent speech of an African political activist to illustrate one of the continent's dominant themes. What theme does the quote underscore?

"If we are to achieve full freedom and if we are to enjoy the benefits of the continent's enormous wealth, we must unite to plan the full exploitation of our material resources in the interests of all our people."

- A. Imperialism
- B. Colonialism
- C. Mercantilism
- D. Pan-Africanism

15. Over the last century in the industrialized nations of the world, fewer and fewer people have been needed to produce enough food for the whole population. This is due to the introduction of commercial agriculture. What breakthrough made commercial agriculture possible?

- A. Urban Revolution
- B. Industrial Revolution
- C. Green Revolution
- D. Neolithic Revolution

16. The Panama Canal is to the Republic of Panama what the Suez Canal is to the

- A. Kingdom of Swaziland.
- B. State of Qatar.
- C. Arab Republic of Egypt.
- D. State of Israel.

17. Which statement best describes most plants that grow in arid environments?

- A. They are unable to store moisture.
- B. They do not need to be pollinated.
- C. They have a complex root system.
- D. They grow only as ground cover.

18. Which of the following best supports this statement?

Technology often causes changes in the physical environment.

- A. The world's largest desert is in Africa.
- B. Lines of longitude converge at the poles.
- C. Some wildlife species are unable to survive after a forest has been clear cut.
- D. There are large scale deposits of iron in Western Australia.

19. What are the two most important elements that make up the weather of a place?

- A. latitude and longitude
- B. ocean currents and wind patterns
- C. landforms and elevation
- D. temperature and precipitation